

Liber Feodorum (Book of Fees)

Northampton: Feoda militum tenentium de domino rege in capite et tenentium de ipsis tenentibus de domino rege in capite et tenentium de wardis quae sunt in manu domini regis in comitatu Northampton propter scutagium eos quorum vera (?) tulerunt de habendum scutagium suis et propter feoda militum existencium infra balliam abbis burgi.

Feoda tenentium in capite de domino rege:

Eustach de Watford tenet in WATFORD dimidium feodum

Ricardus de Lindon tenet unum feodum in ESTON in comitatu NORHT et CASTR in comitatu ROTELAND et unum feodum in BUDENHO et BOESTON in comitatu BEDEFORD

Gilbertus de Preston dimidium feodum in GRETTON per cartam regis Johannis et sicut in regno XII regis Edwardii filii rex Edwardii in Norht

Translation:

"Northampton: Fees of military tenants held in chief from the Lord King and holdings in chief by the same tenants from the Lord King and holdings of wardships which are in the hands of the Lord King in the county of Northampton on account of scutage those of whom in truth who bear... from having their scutage and on account of knight's fees in existence within the bailiwick of the Abbey of Northampton.

Knight's fees held in chief from the Lord King:

Eustace de Watford holds half a fee in Watford

Richard de Lindon holds one fee in Eston in the county of Northampton and Castr in the county of Rutland and one fee in Budenho and Boston in the county of Bedford

Gilbert de Preston half a fee in Gretton as by the charter of King John just as in the 12th year of the reign of King Edward the son of King Edward in Northamptonshire".